Republican Congressional Convention.
SECOND DISTRICT.
A Republican Convention for the Second Congressional District in the State of Wisconsin, will be held at the city of La Crosse, on Wednesday, the 23rd day of August, 1880, at 10 o'clock A. M., for the purpose of nominating a candidate for Congress at the next general election. Each assembly district will be entitled to two delegates in said convention. The several assembly district committees are requested to take measures for the appointment of delegates to said congressional convention, from their respective districts.
DAYTON, CHILDS, HOLT, NORMAN, EASTMAN, J. A. CHANDLER.
Madison, June 28, 1880.
"Capital Should Own Labor."
This is the announcement of the Douglas candidate for vice president, Herschel V. Johnson. He uttered this heartless sentiment in a speech which he delivered at Philadelphia, on the 17th of September, 1855. Mr. Johnson puts it upon the ground that "there must be a laboring class—a class of men who get their living by the sweat of their brow; and that there must be another class that controls and directs the capital of the country." Having assumed that there must be two classes of this kind, he concludes that the capitalist must own the laboring class, or rather, as he says—"capital should own labor." This means the same thing—for to own the labor, is to make a chattel of the laborer. The ownership is not confined to negroes—it is chattelizing all men who get their living by the sweat of their brow—white and black alike. This abominable sentiment proves Mr. Johnson's assertion true that the whole object of slavery may be reduced to a single motive—"to compel labor without wages." The great aim of the oligarchy, north and south, is this: to deprive the working man of all reward for his toil. Wherever you find a man in the north who would cheat the laborer of his hire, he is a slave holder at heart, and would be glad to own the body of the laborer, that he might compel him to work for nothing. Wherever you see a man who is unwilling to give a fair for a fair day's work, you may behold a slave holder in sentiment—he would be rejoiced if capital could own labor, as Mr. Johnson says it should. We have read a good many of the sayings of the Calhoun school of politics, but we do not remember one more detestable. They have applied mean epithets to the industrious white men of the north, and sneeringly called them "niggers," but this proposition to reduce every laborer to a state of bondage, is worse than all. What is it to own a man? It is to deny that he is made in the image of God—and hence it is atheism. It is to nullify the relation of man and wife, parent and child, the right of instruction, and the robbery of labor of all the fruits of toil. That is what Mr. Johnson means by owning labor; and the owners of it should be the capitalists of the country—the unscrupulous—the money kings—they should be the owners. Now this Herschel V. Johnson comes north and asks the laboring white man to vote for him for vice president, and, peradventure, to make him president. His friends, the Douglas politicians, go into every factory and machine shop, into all places of toil, among the farmers, engine builders, masons, carpenters, blacksmiths, and they ask you all to vote for Johnson, in the name of democracy. Will you do it? Will you acknowledge the truth of Johnson's assertion by casting your ballot for him? How is it? Do you who labor believe that "capital should own labor"?—If you do, vote for Douglas and Johnson; for they cannot be separated. Men continue to be kidnapped in Illinois. The latest act of that kind was perpetrated at Jonesboro, in "Egypt," by a postmaster, who holds his prey by means of the threatened use of a shot gun. He advertises for the owner to come and take his chattel. Some years ago it was reported that Illinois was a free state, but of late there are doubts about it. The southern people begin to trouble in their boots at the prospect of Lincoln's election. The Atlanta Confederacy, a Douglas organ, in view of that event, invites its brethren in misery, to "go out of the union together." Well, go ahead; all we ask of you is to take the northern dough-faces with you. The Chicago Press and Tribune is doing a good work in stirring up the conductors on the Illinois Central railroad for their complicity in the kidnappings which have taken place recently. The New York Express, a proselytizing know nothing sheet, recommends the location of a Bell and Everett ticket in Illinois to enable Douglas to carry the state. It also says that the Douglas men in the southern states, "if they cannot beat Breckinridge in any other way, will vote outright for Bell." This is the way these traders in politics propose to manage the presidential election.

Meeting of Farm Mortgagees.
A meeting of the farm mortgagees of Green and Lafayette counties was held at Monroe on Saturday last. The Sentinel says that none but farm mortgagees were permitted to attend. We find the proceedings in the State Rights, from which we learn that they have resolved to protect their homes by all the means and power they can bring to bear. They hold the M. & M. railroad responsible for the farm mortgages in those counties; they denounce all lawyers who will help collect these mortgages; if decrees are obtained and their farms were sold, they resolve—
"That they will hold John Catlin, E. H. Brodhead, E. D. Clinton, Nelson Dewey, Joseph Goodrich, Erastus Woolcott, Hans Crocker, Anson Eldred, Ashbel Finch, E. D. Holton and F. G. Tibbits responsible for the same, and they shall not go unpunished, so help us God."
They further resolve that they will not support any man for office who takes sides against them. Joseph Perrine, B. Dunwiddie and N. L. Stout were appointed to prepare a circular, for publication containing a statement of the facts in regard to the manner in which the farm mortgages were obtained. They adjourned to meet again on the 18th of August.
The Governor on the Dog Law.
The following "sound" letter on the dog law has been written by Gov. Randall, and published, because he is constantly receiving letters enquiring whether this law was signed, &c. This is in consequence of a prevalent rumor among the people that the act mentioned was not legally authenticated and published, after it was passed by the legislature. It will be seen that the "dog law" is a law, and that it is not likely to be repealed while Gov. Randall remains in office.
[copy.]
Executive Office,
Madison, July 6, 1880.
Dear Sir:—Your letter in regard to the "dog law" is received. The bill was properly signed and is the law of this state; and that law will not be repealed with my approval, while I remain in office. No good citizen will object to it, or refuse to obey it. A man who is able to own a dog, which costs as much to keep as to keep a cow, is able to get a collar for him. No good citizen will refuse to make the sacrifice of obedience to that law, when he must know that if it is enforced, it will save to the farmers and stock-growers of this state from $40,000 to $50,000 every year, and increase the number of wool-growers very largely. Every human life lost by the bite of a dog is worth more than all the dogs in the country. A man who is not willing to sacrifice one dollar for his privilege, where so great a benefit may accrue to the state by compliance with the provisions of the act, ought to be kicked out of it.
Very truly yours,
ALEX. W. RANDALL.

Political News.
At a republican convention held in Belmont county, Ohio, on the 30th ult., James Weir and Clifford Arick, both of whom have been prominent and active democrats, declared themselves for Lincoln and Hamlin, as did also L. C. Danford, a Filmore elector in 1857, and Dr. W. W. Jenkins, chairman of the county convention that organized the constitutional Union party in Belmont county.
DUCK AND SNIP AT BRECKINRIDGE'S—Gray, of the Cleveland Plain Dealer is distinguishing himself in this campaign. He says in reply to the statement of Mr. Breckinridge that he had not sought the nomination:
"Why did Breckinridge himself invite delegates who were on their way to Charleston to his house in Washington, and why did he dine them on ducks and snipe, a civility he never was guilty of before, if he did not desire the nomination? Bah, Mr. Breckinridge! You have started out in the campaign with a lie in your mouth."
STILL THEY COME.—The Cleveland Herald says:
"We have, the postmaster at Ravenna, has, within three days, come out for Lincoln and Hamlin. Mr. Gillett was a democratic member of the senate a few years since, is a very influential man, and up to this time has ever adhered to the democratic party. But he can go with it no longer."
The Gazette and Democrat and Reading Adler, the two organs of the democracy in Berks county, have hoisted the names of Lincoln and Hamlin. The Gazette, in Breckinridge and Lane. The Democrat, in doing so, states, that it represents the wishes of a large majority of the democracy of Berks county.
A correspondent who attended the Baltimore democratic convention, gives the following as the remark made in his hearing by one of the delegates: "It is a sad thing that Abe Lincoln is a cursed hard nut to crack, and unless the democrats march shoulder to shoulder in one solid phalanx, as one unit, carrying the sledge-hammer of Jackson democracy, they never can crack him any how."
DOUGLAS IN INDIANA.—The Douglasses of Adams county undertook to get up a ratification meeting a few days since at Decatur, but the effort proved a miserable failure. The next day the Adams County Democrat, the organ of the party, ran up the Breckinridge and Lane colors.
The Washington Star thinks that the union of the two factions of the democracy would be followed by the defection of thousands of the friends of Mr. Douglas to the republicans. It therefore urges a fusion of the three anti-republican parties as necessary to carry doubtful northern states.
INDIANA.—Cassius M. Clay had a grand reception at Indianapolis on Saturday night last. Tall 10,000 persons were present. A splendid procession was formed, which marched to the court house square, where Mr. Clay was introduced to the immense crowd by Hon. Caleb B. Smith. Mr. Clay spoke for more than an hour and a half and kept his audience in rapt attention, notwithstanding his suffering from a severe hoarseness, induced by his severe labors on the stump. The enthusiasm was carried to the highest pitch.
The Cleveland National Democrat repudiates the idea that it is in favor of a union electoral ticket between the Breckinridge and Douglas men. It says:
"No proposition was ever made by the friends of Breckinridge and Lane to coalesce, and if any arrangement is made we will require bond and security to keep the Douglas scamps to their word, for without security we would not give a farthing for all their pledges. They seek the election of Lincoln, and will ensure it if they can."
The Iowa State Register says that five voters in one family at Rising Sun, near Des Moines, who voted the democratic ticket last year, are now in favor of the republican ticket. Thus it goes everywhere.

BY WISCONSIN STATE TELEGRAPH LINE, Office in Union Passenger Depot.
NEW YORK, July 19.
The inquest on the Walter Matheba murder resulted in a verdict against Charles Jeffers, who was committed to trial. Nearly 9000 persons visited the Great Eastern yesterday. She makes an excursion Monday to Cape May, returning on Wednesday.
BALTIMORE, July 18.
The Bell and Everett ratification is immense, and the greatest enthusiasm displayed. The front of the court house is brilliantly decorated with transparencies, flags, mottoes, &c. The number present is fully double as great as attended the ratification meetings of either branch of the democracy. Mayor Swan presided. Speeches were made by J. Dixon Roman, Frederick C. Slay, and other distinguished Marylanders. The various ward associations marched with transparencies, illuminated monuments drawn by horses, bands of music, and all other indications of political enthusiasm. Letters were read from J. W. Gerard, Erastus Brooks, of New York; Mr. Randolph of New Jersey; Leslie Slocomb, and other prominent men.
MADISON, July 19.
Frank H. Firman, a prominent member of the Wisconsin Bar, and chairman of the Democratic central committee for Dane county, in a letter to the Argus and Democrat of this morning, declares that he cannot support either Douglas or Breckinridge, and that he intends to vote for Abraham Lincoln for president.

THE CONFLICT IN EGYPT.—The Douglas and Breckinridge factions in the ancient town of Jonesboro have mutually proclaimed a non-intercourse with each other, which the Douglas men have resolved not to violate. The Breckinridge families have determined not to visit the Douglas families, nor to recognize them as respectable members of society. A correspondent writes us under date of July 14th: "You can have no idea of the bitterness of feeling which has sprung up between the factions here since the Breckinridge electoral ticket was nominated at Springfield. It has entered into the business and social relations of the people in such a way as to fill the air with bitterness. It will come to a head before the election." The Breckinridge faction are the more numerous in the county, as they were two years ago, and they have compelled all the candidates for county offices to declare unequivocally for Breckinridge and Lane as a condition precedent to having their claims considered in their coming convention. Mr. John E. Nail, the Breckinridge elector for the 9th district, is the editor of the Jonesboro Gazette. He proposes to take the stump against John L. Linn (dem.) or Judge Haynes and soon as the Douglasses begin their campaign in Egypt.—Chicago Tribune.

A correspondent writes us under date of July 14th: "You can have no idea of the bitterness of feeling which has sprung up between the factions here since the Breckinridge electoral ticket was nominated at Springfield. It has entered into the business and social relations of the people in such a way as to fill the air with bitterness. It will come to a head before the election." The Breckinridge faction are the more numerous in the county, as they were two years ago, and they have compelled all the candidates for county offices to declare unequivocally for Breckinridge and Lane as a condition precedent to having their claims considered in their coming convention. They further resolve that they will not support any man for office who takes sides against them. Joseph Perrine, B. Dunwiddie and N. L. Stout were appointed to prepare a circular, for publication containing a statement of the facts in regard to the manner in which the farm mortgages were obtained. They adjourned to meet again on the 18th of August.

Dear Sir:—Your letter in regard to the "dog law" is received. The bill was properly signed and is the law of this state; and that law will not be repealed with my approval, while I remain in office. No good citizen will object to it, or refuse to obey it. A man who is able to own a dog, which costs as much to keep as to keep a cow, is able to get a collar for him. No good citizen will refuse to make the sacrifice of obedience to that law, when he must know that if it is enforced, it will save to the farmers and stock-growers of this state from $40,000 to $50,000 every year, and increase the number of wool-growers very largely. Every human life lost by the bite of a dog is worth more than all the dogs in the country. A man who is not willing to sacrifice one dollar for his privilege, where so great a benefit may accrue to the state by compliance with the provisions of the act, ought to be kicked out of it.

Political News.
At a republican convention held in Belmont county, Ohio, on the 30th ult., James Weir and Clifford Arick, both of whom have been prominent and active democrats, declared themselves for Lincoln and Hamlin, as did also L. C. Danford, a Filmore elector in 1857, and Dr. W. W. Jenkins, chairman of the county convention that organized the constitutional Union party in Belmont county.
DUCK AND SNIP AT BRECKINRIDGE'S—Gray, of the Cleveland Plain Dealer is distinguishing himself in this campaign. He says in reply to the statement of Mr. Breckinridge that he had not sought the nomination:
"Why did Breckinridge himself invite delegates who were on their way to Charleston to his house in Washington, and why did he dine them on ducks and snipe, a civility he never was guilty of before, if he did not desire the nomination? Bah, Mr. Breckinridge! You have started out in the campaign with a lie in your mouth."
STILL THEY COME.—The Cleveland Herald says:
"We have, the postmaster at Ravenna, has, within three days, come out for Lincoln and Hamlin. Mr. Gillett was a democratic member of the senate a few years since, is a very influential man, and up to this time has ever adhered to the democratic party. But he can go with it no longer."
The Gazette and Democrat and Reading Adler, the two organs of the democracy in Berks county, have hoisted the names of Lincoln and Hamlin. The Gazette, in Breckinridge and Lane. The Democrat, in doing so, states, that it represents the wishes of a large majority of the democracy of Berks county.
A correspondent who attended the Baltimore democratic convention, gives the following as the remark made in his hearing by one of the delegates: "It is a sad thing that Abe Lincoln is a cursed hard nut to crack, and unless the democrats march shoulder to shoulder in one solid phalanx, as one unit, carrying the sledge-hammer of Jackson democracy, they never can crack him any how."
DOUGLAS IN INDIANA.—The Douglasses of Adams county undertook to get up a ratification meeting a few days since at Decatur, but the effort proved a miserable failure. The next day the Adams County Democrat, the organ of the party, ran up the Breckinridge and Lane colors.
The Washington Star thinks that the union of the two factions of the democracy would be followed by the defection of thousands of the friends of Mr. Douglas to the republicans. It therefore urges a fusion of the three anti-republican parties as necessary to carry doubtful northern states.
INDIANA.—Cassius M. Clay had a grand reception at Indianapolis on Saturday night last. Tall 10,000 persons were present. A splendid procession was formed, which marched to the court house square, where Mr. Clay was introduced to the immense crowd by Hon. Caleb B. Smith. Mr. Clay spoke for more than an hour and a half and kept his audience in rapt attention, notwithstanding his suffering from a severe hoarseness, induced by his severe labors on the stump. The enthusiasm was carried to the highest pitch.
The Cleveland National Democrat repudiates the idea that it is in favor of a union electoral ticket between the Breckinridge and Douglas men. It says:
"No proposition was ever made by the friends of Breckinridge and Lane to coalesce, and if any arrangement is made we will require bond and security to keep the Douglas scamps to their word, for without security we would not give a farthing for all their pledges. They seek the election of Lincoln, and will ensure it if they can."
The Iowa State Register says that five voters in one family at Rising Sun, near Des Moines, who voted the democratic ticket last year, are now in favor of the republican ticket. Thus it goes everywhere.

"Capital Should Own Labor."

This is the announcement of the Douglas candidate for vice president, Herschel V. Johnson. He uttered this heartless sentiment in a speech which he delivered at Philadelphia, on the 17th of September, 1856. Mr. Johnson puts it upon the ground that "there must be a laboring class—a class of men who get their living by the sweat of their brow; and that there must be another class that controls and directs the capital of the country." Having assumed that there must be two classes of this kind, he concludes that the capitalist must own the laboring class, or rather, as he says, "capital should own labor." This means the same thing—for to own the labor, is to make a chattel of the laborer. The ownership is not confined to negroes—it is chattelizing all men who get their living by the sweat of their brow—white and black alike.

This abominable sentiment proves Mr. Sumner's assertion true that the whole object of slavery may be reduced to a single motive—"to compel labor without wages."

The great aim of the oligarchy, north and south, is this: to deprive the working man of all reward for his toil. Wherever you find a man in the north who would cheat the laborer of his hire, he is a slave holder at heart, and would be glad to own the body of the laborer, that he might compel him to work for nothing. Wherever you see a man who is unwilling to give a fair for a fair day's work, you may behold a slave holder in sentiment—he would be rejoiced if capital could own labor, as Mr. Johnson says it should.

We have read a good many of the sayings of the Calhoun school of politics, but we do not remember one more detestable. They have applied mean epithets to the industrious white men of the north, and sneeringly called them "mudsills," but this proposition to reduce every laborer to a state of bondage, is worse than all. What is it to own a man? It is to deny that he is made in the image of God—and hence it is atheism. It is to nullify the relation of man and wife, parent and child, the right of instruction, and the robbery of labor of all the fruits of toil. That is what Mr. Johnson means by owning labor, and the owners of the country—the unscrupulous—the money kings—they should be the owners.

Now this Herschel V. Johnson comes north and asks the laboring white man to vote for him for vice president, and peradventure, to make him president. His friends, the Douglas politicians, go into every factory and machine shop, into all places of toil, among the farmers, engine builders, moulders, carpenters, blacksmiths, masons, shoe makers, printers and hod carriers—and they ask you all to vote for Johnson, in the name of democracy. Will you do it? Will you acknowledge the truth of Johnson's assertion by casting your ballot for him? How is it? Do you who labor believe that "capital should own labor?" If you do, vote for Douglas and Johnson.

For they cannot be separated.

Men continue to be kidnapped in Illinois. The latest act of that kind was perpetrated at Jonesboro, in "Egypt," by a postmaster, who holds his prey by means of the threatened use of a shot gun. He advertises for the owner to come and take his chattel. Some years ago it was reported that Illinois was a free state, but of late there are doubts about it.

The southern people begin to tremble in their boots at the prospect of Lincoln's election. The Atlanta Confederacy, a Douglas organ, in view of that event, invites its brethren in misery, to "go out of the union together." Well, go ahead; all we ask of you is to take the northern doughtrails with you.

The Chicago Press and Tribune is doing a good work in stirring up the conductors on the Illinois Central railroad for their complicity in the kidnappings which have taken place recently.

The New York Express, a pro-slavery, know nothing sheet, recommends the formation of a Bell and Everett ticket in Illinois to enable Douglas to carry the state. It also says that the Douglas men in the southern states, "if they cannot beat Breckinridge in any other way, will vote outright for Bell." This is the way these traders in politics propose to manage the presidential election.

We find the proceedings in the State Rights, from which we learn that they have resolved to protect their homes by all the means and power they can bring to bear. They further resolve that they will not support any man for office who takes suits against them. Joseph Perrine, B. Donwidie and N. L. Stont were appointed to prepare a circular for publication containing a statement of the facts in regard to the manner in which the farm mortgages were obtained. They adjourned to meet again on the 18th of August.

A COMICAL INCIDENT.

The following paragraph has been handed to the Madison Journal by an eye-witness of the proceedings of the Douglasites in that city on Saturday night: During the procession last Saturday evening, owing to the indiscretion of one of the marshals, a portion of the torches were extinguished. The marshal in question yelled out, "Pat, your torch is burning; throw it away." Instantly one hundred and fifty torches fell to the ground, for each and every man rejoicing in the popular cognomen of Patrick considered himself personally appealed to.

RECEPTION OF CARL SCHURZ AT QUINCY.

This gentleman was received with distinguished honors by the republicans of Quincy on Tuesday morning. On his arrival in the cars, a committee consisting of Gov. Wood, Hon. Jackson Grimshaw, and others, met Mr. Schurz and introduced him to a large crowd present, which received him with long continued and hearty cheers. He was then placed in a carriage, and a long procession, headed by a band of music, escorted him to the court house, where he was again welcomed with shouts, by a large audience, and a speech from Hon. Jackson Grimshaw, to which Mr. Schurz made a brief, eloquent response. Mr. S. was to speak in the evening at the city hall, at the invitation of the German republicans of Quincy.

REPUBLICAN VICTORY IN MILWAUKEE.

An election took place in Milwaukee on Wednesday for city treasurer which resulted in the election of Tesch, the republican candidate, by a majority of 933.

A CORRECT COALITION PROPOSED.

Several Georgia papers publish articles favorable to a union of the Douglas men with the Bell and Everett party, but the result is uncertain.

CONGRESSIONAL NOMINATION.—Ben M. Samuels was nominated for congress from the 2nd district, Iowa, by the democratic convention at Cedar Rapids on the 17th inst.

UNIONISM IN MISSOURI.—The St. Louis union convention, on the 18th, nominated Albert Todd for congress. It also nominated a full county and legislative ticket.

Mr. Buchanan is encouraging combinations with the Douglas men for the purpose of carrying the election into the house, and the ultimate election of Lane, who is his candidate. This is the reason why he conceded, in his stump speech, that neither candidate was regularly nominated.

THE FIRE SPREADING.—One hundred and four citizens of Hannibal, Missouri, "believing that the success of the principles of the republican party is necessary to the well being of the country," have united in a letter to Frank Blair to come and make them a republican speech.

They had a tremendous Douglas meeting at St. Charles, Kane Co., Ill., on Saturday. 187 persons were present, and a grand procession, numbering thirty-nine, was formed and marched in solid phalanx through the street.

At the Breckinridge convention held at Bolivar, Missouri, on the 16th inst., Hon. C. W. Price was nominated for congress, in opposition to Jno. S. Phelps. He accepted the nomination, and will canvass the district.

Political News.

At a republican convention held in Belmont county, Ohio, on the 30th ult., James Weir and Clifford Arick, both of whom have been prominent and active democrats, declared themselves in favor of Lincoln, as did also L. C. Danford, a Filmore elector in 1857, and Dr. W. W. Jenkins, chairman of the county convention that organized the constitutional Union party in Belmont county.

DUCK AND SNIP AT BRECKINRIDGE'S.—Gray, of the Cleveland Plain Dealer is distinguishing himself this campaign. He says in reply to the statement of Mr. Breckinridge that he had not sought the nomination:

"Why did Breckinridge himself invite delegates who were on their way to Charleston to his house in Washington, and why did he dine them on ducks and snipe, a civility he never was guilty of before, if he did not desire the nomination? Bah, Mr. Breckinridge! You have started out in the campaign with a lie in your mouth."

STILL THEY COME.—The Cleveland Herald says:

"We have at our indisputable authority that Mr. Gillett, the postmaster at Ravensburg, has, within three days, come out for Lincoln and Hamlin. Mr. Gillett was a democratic member of the senate a few years since, is a very influential man, and up to this time has ever adhered to the democratic party. But he can go with it no longer."

The Gazette and Democrat and Reading Adler, the two organs of the democracy in Berks county, have both the names of Breckinridge and Lane. The Gazette, in doing so, states, that it represents the wishes of a large majority of the democracy of Berks county.

A correspondent who attended the Baltimore democratic convention, gives the following as the remark made in his hearing by one of the delegates: "It is a sure thing that Abe Lincoln is a cussed hard nut to crack, and unless the demagogues march shoulder to shoulder in one solid flank and as one unit, carrying the sledge-hammer of Jacksonian democracy, they never can crack him any more."

DOUGLAS IN INDIANA.—The Douglasites of Adams county undertook to get up a ratification meeting a few days since at Decatur, but the effort proved a miserable failure. The next day the Adams County Democrat, the organ of the party, ran up the Breckinridge and Lane colors.

The Washington Star thinks that the union of the two factions of the democracy would be followed by the defection of thousands of the friends of Mr. Douglas to the republicans. It therefore urges a fusion of the three anti-republican parties as necessary to carry doubtful northern states.

INDIANA.—Cassius M. Clay had a grand reception at Indianapolis on Saturday night last. Full 10,000 persons were present. A splendid procession was formed, headed by the county house where Mr. Clay was introduced to the immense crowd by Hon. Caleb B. Smith. Mr. Clay spoke for more than an hour and a half and kept his audience in rapt attention, notwithstanding he was suffering from a severe hoarseness, induced by his severe labors on the stump. The enthusiasm was carried to the highest pitch.

The Cleveland Democrat repudiates the idea that it is in favor of a union on electoral tickets between the Breckinridge and Douglas men. It says:

"No proposition was ever made by the friends of Breckinridge and Lane to coalcesce, and if any arrangement is made we will require bond and security to keep the Douglas scamps to their word, for without security we would not give a farthing for all their pledges. They seek the election of Lincoln, and will ensure it if they can."

The Iowa State Register says that five voters in one family at Rising Sun, near Des Moines, who voted the democratic ticket last year, are now in favor of the republican ticket. Thus it goes everywhere.

PENNSYLVANIA.—Hon. Richard Vaux, one of the Democratic Electors at large, and Hon. Thomas R. Crawford, Elector from the XVIIIth District, decidedly and indignantly repudiate the arrangements made by the Pennsylvania State Convention, by which each elector was required to pledge himself to vote for either Douglas or Breckinridge, as circumstances might require. They will not consent to vote for any person but Douglas and Johnson.

LINCOLN IN NORTHERN NEW YORK.—We ran through the counties of Oneida, Lewis and Jefferson last week, and were gladdened with the aspect everywhere presented, but especially in Lewis County, in which the farmers' prospects were never better.

The Lincoln meeting at Louisville, last Thursday, was very large, and at Louisville, in the evening, very good, though at Watertown next day and evening very strong and spirited. If Central and Northern New York do not give Lincoln and Hamlin more votes and larger majorities this fall than they ever yet gave to anybody, then all signs are delusive.—X. T. Tribune, 16th.

PENNSYLVANIA.—The Erie Observer, one of the most intelligent and influential Democratic papers in Northern Pennsylvania, thus frankly admits that the defeat of its party in November is inevitable:

"We will stultify ourselves—we will not compensate the position of this journal by misleading its readers with vain and delusive hopes, when there is no room for hope. 'United we stand, divided we fall,' is an aphorism which has never been controverted, either in the theory or practice. No political party divided can succeed. We tried it in 1848, and a like result followed from a like cause. And we are about to repeat again in 1860 the disastrous result of 1848. We know it as well as that there is silver lining in the cloud that spans the political horizon of the Democratic party at this time."

How TO DO UP SHIRT BOSOMS.—We have often been requested by lady correspondents to state by what process the gloss on new linens, shirt bosoms, &c., is produced, and in order to gratify them we submit the following receipt: Take two ounces of fine white gum arabic powder—put it in a pitcher, and pour on a pint or more of boiling water, according to the degree of strength you desire—and then having covered it, let it stand all night—in the morning pour it carefully from the dregs into a clean bottle, cork it, and keep it for use. A table spoonful of gum water added in a pint of starch, made in the usual manner, will give to lawn, either white or printed, a look as new when, when nothing else can restore them, after being washed.

TWENTY THOUSAND DOLLARS FROM OUR JAPANESE VISITORS.—The Japanese, before leaving this country, were desirous of leaving some pecuniary testimonial of their appreciation of the hospitalities extended to them. They at first requested Capt. Dupont, the American commissioner who attended them, to act as their almoner. But, as an officer of the army, he felt himself precluded from any such duty. The Japanese thereupon entrusted that sum to Mr. Belmont, the son-in-law of the late Commodore Perry, "to be distributed among the people of the several cities where they sojourned. Mr. B. accepted the trust, and has forwarded the proper quota to the mayors of Washington, Baltimore, Philadelphia and New York.

REPORTED FOR THE DAILY GAZETTE.

BY WISCONSIN STATE TELEGRAPH LINE.
Office in Union Passenger Depot.

New York, July 19.

The inquest on the Walter Matheus murder resulted in a verdict against Charles Jefferys, who was committed for trial.

Nearly 9000 persons visited the Great Eastern yesterday. She makes an excursion Monday to Cape May, returning on Wednesday.

BALTIMORE, JULY 18.

The Bell and Everett ratification is immense, and the greatest enthusiasm displayed. The front of the court house is brilliantly decorated with transparencies, flags, mottoes, &c. The Breckinridge present is fully double as great as attended the ratification meetings of either branch of the democracy.

Major Sevan presided. Speeches were made by J. Dixon Roman, Frederick Slay, and other distinguished Marylanders. The various ward associations marched with transparencies, illuminated monuments drawn by horses, bands of music, and all other indications of political enthusiasm. Letters were read from J. W. Gerard, Elettus Brooks, of New York; Mr. Randolph, of New Jersey; Leslie Sticomb, and other prominent men.

MADISON, JULY 19.

Frank H. Firman, a prominent member of the Wisconsin Bar, and chairman of the democratic central committee for Dane county, in a letter to the Argus and Democrat of this morning, declares that he cannot support either Douglas or Breckinridge, and that he intends to vote for Abraham Lincoln for president.

THE MARKET.

New York, July 19.

Flour heavy and low, sales 12,000 bbls., 5.10a5.15 super state; 5.37a5.50 extra do; 5.10a5.15 super western; 5.25a5.50 common to medium extra western. Rye flour steady, 3.50a4.20. Wheat market somewhat striking change, with holders a little more disposed to realize; sales 76,000 bushels, 1.29 Chicago spring; 1.27a1.30 Milwaukee club.

THE CONFLICT IN EGYP.—The Douglas and Breckinridge factions in the ancient town of Jenesboro have mutually passed a declaration of war. The Douglas men, headed by the Douglas men, have determined not to visit the Douglas families, nor to recognize them as respectable members of society. A correspondent writes us under date of July 14th: "You can have no idea of the bitterness of feeling which has sprung up between the factions here since the Breckinridge electoral ticket was nominated at Springfield. It has entered into the business and social relations of the people in such a way as to bid fair that the parties will come to blows before the election."

The Breckinridge faction are the more numerous in the county, as they were two years ago, and they have compelled all the candidates for county offices to declare unqualifiedly for Breckinridge and Lane as a condition precedent to having their claims considered in the coming convention.

Mr. John E. Nail, the Breckinridge elector for the 9th district, is the editor of the Jonesboro Gazette. He proposes to take the stump against John Logan (dem.) or Judge Haynie as soon as the Douglasites begin their campaign in Egypt.—Chicago Tribune.

THE OLDEST PREACHER IN NEW ENGLAND.—"In the town of Berlin, Vt., adjoining Montpelier," writes a correspondent to the Boston Traveler, "lives the Rev. James Hobart, who is probably the most remarkable preacher in New England. He is now about entering the ninety-fifth year of his age, and the serenity of his mind, his vigor and his vigorous and active, preaching every Sunday, when and wherever he can engage himself. Thirty years ago his people, over whom he had been the settled congregational minister since the settlement of the town, in about the year 1790, dismissed him, supposing he would not hold out much longer. Since then he has been preaching in New Hampshire and Vermont, on nearly monthly and daily engagements. He is a hearty, hearty man, and a man of great energy, and he has traveled nearly half a dozen miles to preach, and home again the same day."

ATTEMPT AT SUICIDE.—We understand that a Mr. Tator, who has recently been lecturing in this city on the subject of spiritualism, has been endeavoring to "throw off" this mortal coil by taking ether. Friends have endeavored to stop him, but he is still in "a vale of tears" and "unrelenting agony."

REMEDY FOR A FELON.—We find the following in the Auburn Daily Union: A lady who had been troubled for some time, by a felon on her finger, gives a simple remedy from which she experienced a great relief, and which enabled her to obtain sleep for the first time in many nights. It was to cut a hole in a lemon, and pour it on the finger like a thimble—the felon being encased in the fruit. Persons afflicted with these painful and occasionally dangerous visitors would do well to give this wonderful agent a trial.

A CLOCK TWO HUNDRED AND FIFTY YEARS OLD.—Peter Folger, of this village, has in possession a clock—the oldest style—which is at least two hundred and fifty years old. From him we learn that it was brought to Nantucket, Mass., in 1633, by his grandfather, as named Peter Folger, some time this village relic has been remained in the Folger family. The work is of English oak, and the machinery is entirely of brass. Its maker, Thomas Hughes, London, probably forgot to date the year in which it was made, but the genealogy of the family establishes the fact of its having been in the family nearly thirty years before it was taken across the water to Nantucket. It is indeed an old clock. Having done faithful service in Nantucket, it was removed to New York state during the revolution, and thence was taken to Waukegan, where it now ticks, ticks, as ever, and is still in an excellent state of preservation.—Waukegan Register.

KILLED IN FIFTY MINUTES BY STREPTOCOCUS WHISKY.—A letter in the Baraboo Republic, dated at Reedsburg, Sauk county, sets:

A matter of painful interest occurred in the town of Trenton, about two miles south of this village, on Sunday evening last. Four men were at a loose doggerly, kept by one James Douglas, where they bought and drank three pints of what was sold for whisky. Three of them soon after vomited up the liquor, but the fourth, a Frenchman, unmarried, name not given, died in fifteen minutes after drinking the last time. The testimony before the coroner's jury proved the liquor to have been alcohol reduced and drugged. Douglas has been arrested by the town authorities for selling liquor.

When Garibaldi went on board the English ship Humboldt to meet the Neapolitan commander, at Palermo, he wore the full uniform of a Piedmontese general, but his usual working dress includes nothing more ornamental than a red flannel shirt, slouch hat, and a colored cravat.

Hottest Summer Since 1828.—The Montgomery (Ala.) Mail of the 6th, says:

We learn that the thermometer marked 103 degrees in several open houses in the city yesterday. One of our citizens who has kept a diary of the weather for thirty years, says that the present is the hottest summer since 1828. We have not known the mercury to range as high as 98 degrees but once before in Montgomery, and that was, we believe, in 1856.

It is estimated by the Baltimore papers that the census of their city this year will show a population of 230,000.

Some land was lately sold in the city of London at the rate of $900,000 per acre.

The crops of all kinds, throughout the Wabash, exceed anything of the kind ever before known.

The mother of senator Douglas, now married to Ezekiah Granger, now resides in Ontario county, N. Y., about two miles from Clifton Springs farm, on one of the most splendid farms in that county.

The bill incurred by the city council in New York in entertaining the Japanese amounts to $125,000.

A crowd of two thousand in Limerick, Ireland, burned Garibaldi in effigy recently, after having hung him on Gallows Green.

Seeing one's face in a cake of ice, some one calls a "cool reflection."
